Are you stuck with job searches?
Run out of ideas of where to look for work?

Join our new Westminster Job Club
for deaf and disabled people

WE

Employment Services at Westminster Centre for Independent Living have grown!

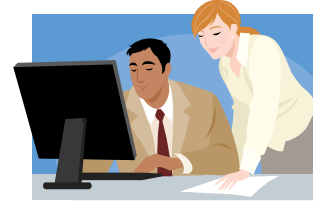

We have a new job club open to D/deaf or disabled people who live in the Westminster borough who are looking to find paid employment, work placements, voluntary work or training.

When? Thursday

Time? 9.30am – 1pm

Where? Westminster Centre for Independent Living

(The Job Club will open on Thursday 5th February 2008)

We will provide:

- CV Workshops
- Interview practice
- Computer training
- Letter writing
- Telephone skills
- Online application form support

You can use Westminster Job Club to access the Internet for job searches with support from an experienced and qualified Employment Advisor.

BSL translation and English support will also be available.

If you are interested in becoming a job club member please contact Sally or Geoff (details overleaf)
